THE LOSS OF THE NOSE. - The presence of mind shown by an Ohio physician saved a man a nose. That useful memory was servered by a fall upon a sharp corner, and the attendant M. D., by promptly placing the sundered piece where it belonged, secured a sundered piece where it belonged, secured a "I am," was the sustere reply. "Mish-Misher Davis, Pres'ent Confed'rt man a nose. That useful member was sevquent restoration of the organ, plus an ugly

Less successful was the replacing of a nose by a young man of this city may years ago.

While engaged in playing "fencing" with a companion, a reckless pass cleanly cut off the young fellow's nose. He had not studied physiology for nothing, and, acting upon was in every paper in Richmond. this knowledge, grabbed the severed organ and clapped it on the bleeding surface it had just quitted. Then his nose was bound firmly on and nature was left to take her course. She did this admirably. When the bandages were removed the two parts were found to be grown together beautifully. Nothing could be nicer, except that the unfortunate young man had put his nose on upside down! The nostrils stood as open to Heaven as the flues at the spex of a chim

The memories that come down through a vista of thirty years since this ead affair took place are a trifle misty and unreliable as to the subsequent career of the man with the inverted nose. He is believed to be dead. During his life, however, he was known to declare that, for purposes of snuff taking, he had the very finest nose in the world, but that to be caught in a heavy shower without an umbrella was tantamount to rowning. Those that are suddenly deprived of a nose should be careful to replace it with the per-forations down. Human life is made up of strilles, and some of these have power to engender discomfort, when it comes to an up-side down nose.—Pittsburg Bulletin.

A BIGAMIST LEADS A GOSPEL MEETING-David Bernhardt, alias David Daywalt, fainted in the Police Court in Baltimore last Tuesday when a neat looking little woman, who claimed to be his first wife, confronted him and preferred charges of bigamy. He soon revived, however, and the hearing of the case proceeded. The first wife stated that she was married to Daywalt in 1872 at Waynesboro, Pa. The first intimation the second wife had of her husband's previous marriage was the other day, when a girl of 16 years appeared at her house and shocked with the information that Bernhardt and Daywait were the same man, and her father. The second wife was a widow named Wetherton, and the daughter of And Extensive Dealer in

And Extensive Dealer in Carey Southcomb, a well-known citizen. They were married last July, he representing his name as Bernhardt. Her parents opposed the match. When acrested the alleged bigamist was leading a gospel meeting. The first wife claims that he did not support his family, and remained away from home for weeks at a time. Owing to the second wife being ill and unable to appear he case was continued.

I was wonded in the leg at the battle of Stone River, Dec. 31st, 1892. My blood was poisoned from the effects of the wound, and the leg swelled to double its natural size, and remained so for many years. The poison extended to my whole system, and I suffered a thousand deaths. Nothing dld me any good until I took Swift's Specific, which took the poison out of my system, and enabled me to feel myself a man amin. S. S. S. is the remedy for blood poison.

THE NEW SCHOOL SUPERINTENDENT .--Mr. John E. Massey, the newly elected superintendent of the public schools, in reply to a question said that he hoped to accomplish several reforms as superintendent of public instruction. One would be in the nature of a change, if he could accomplish it, of the policy of paying teachers according to the percentage of attendance of pupils. "If a teacher is provided, and the parents of the enrolled children hegiect their duty of compelling regular attendance, the teacher ought to be paid. The fault is not his, and he ought not to suffer for it. There ought also to be a direct relation be-tween the superintendent of public instruc-tian and the teachers. The present arrange ment is that a board appoints the teachers, and if incompetance and negligence is dis-covered by the superintendent, he has no power. It is a great injustice, and I shall do all I can to set it right."
